A CHAMBER OF SPIRITED REVELRY IN THE FOUNDATIONS OF THE CITY

The vaults beneath The Royal Exchange house a new fortune. Step through the unassuming door on Cornhill and down a spiral staircase where there lies a den of spirited talk and lively tipling; introducing The Libertine.

Under vaulted arches which once guarded the spices, silks and gold that enriched London in years gone by sits an impressive bar worthy of the modern City.

BAR & CASUAL DINING

THE LIBERTINE IS A PLACE FOR FREE-SPIRITED REVELRY

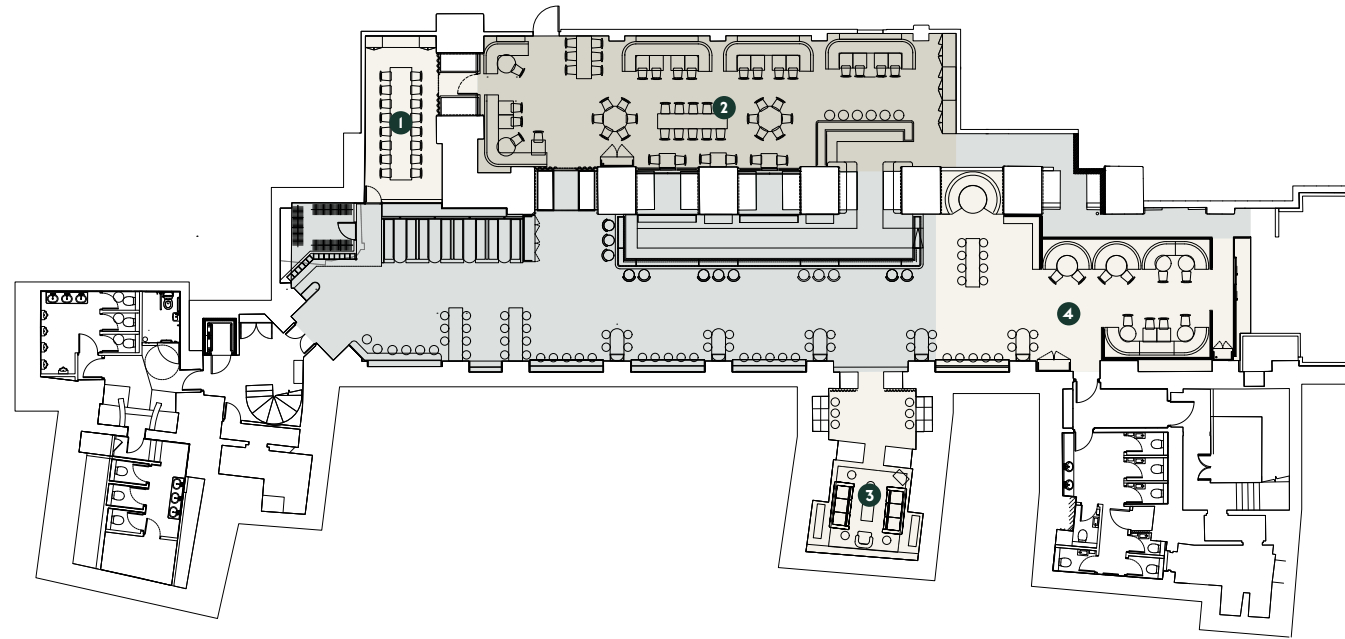

We are available for both semi-private bookings and full private hire of the historic vaults. Our dedicated events team will work with you to mark your occasion, whether it's a special birthday, an office party, a product launch or a team away day.

Spaces for hire include the private dining room, our hidden alcove lounge 'The Whiskey Vault', our restaurant and the bar area. For groups of 4 to 450, we will work with you to create a bespoke package that perfectly matches the needs of your event.

PRIVATE DINING ROOM

FOOD & DRINK UNDER HISTORIC ARCHES

Formerly famed for the simple pies and smoked fish that would sustain a days trade, The Royal Exchange is now home to two welcoming restaurants. Enjoy wholesome seasonal fare prepared with the finest quality produce from lunch until late.

Choose from snacks for the table, starters, seafood dishes, a selection of dry-aged steaks and grande cuts alongside traditional mains and desserts.
